

A Helena Christmas to Remember on December 1st

The Helena Beautification Board along with Helena's First Friday have joined forces to present "A Helena Christmas to Remember".

Festivities kick off on December 1st at 5:00 PM with First Friday in full swing. Lining the streets of Old Town will be crafts, vendors, live music and food trucks for all to enjoy throughout the night. The Helena Art Council will be on hand with Christmas ornaments that your family can decorate to be placed on the city's Christmas tree. Don't forget to stop by and have your pictures taken with Mrs. Clause at Scozzaro Law, The Grinch at Skull Girl Soaps and Santa himself at Oh My Sole!

The First Annual Helena Tree Lighting begins at 8:00 PM at the Welcome Center Caboose with performances from the Helena United Methodist Church Handbell Ensemble and the Helena High School Choir. To cap off the night of festivities, Mayor Mark Hall will be illuminating the city's 15 foot Christmas tree to officially ring in the holiday season.

Bring your family out and enjoy the night full of fun with "A Helena Christmas to Remember".
